Sharing Experience with Ukraine

Ukraine faces huge challenges, but at the same time, it has to implement difficult but necessary reforms. We must and can help Ukraine, said President Grybauskaitė in the meeting with President Poroshenko of Ukraine in Kyiv 24 November. The Presidents co-chaired the seventh session of the Council of Presidents of the Republic of Lithuania and Ukraine. Lithuanian Minister of National Defense Juozas Olekas told that Lithuania will provide assistance to Ukraine based on the country's needs. More Ukrainian troops will come to Lithuania for training, Lithuania will provide medical assistance and rehabilitation for a bigger number of injured Ukrainians; the formation of the trilateral Lithuanian-Polish-Ukrainian brigade will be stepped up. Lithuanian Energy Minister Rokas Masiulis offered to supply natural gas to Ukraine and to help the country in building a liquefied natural gas (LNG) terminal. Lithuania also expressed its readiness to provide expert assistance in the economic, legal, transport and other fields.

Ready for Euro

Lithuania's preparations for the adoption of the euro next year seem overall well on track, the European Commission (EC) has said, calling on Lithuania's authorities to address the remaining concerns related to euro introduction and to increase consumers' confidence so as to ensure smooth euro changeover.

Disapproving Attempts to Manipulate History

Lithuania and all other EU Member States have abstained in the UN General Assembly vote on the Resolution on Combating Glorification of Nazism and Other Contemporary Forms of Racism put forward by the Russian Federation 21 November. EU made a very strong Explanation of Vote deploring Russia's attempts to raise issues which are far from being related to combating racism and puts emphasis on monopolising one-sided interpretation of history as the recent attempts to justify the Ribbentrop-Molotov pact indicate. The EU highlighted that illegal actions of Russia and its violations of international law in Ukraine under the pretext of fighting Nazism are unacceptable. The EU has once again reiterated its commitment to comprehensive fight against racism and underlined its readiness to continue a constructive debate on this issue.

The TTIP - Top Priority

At a conference "The Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership: a Strategic Opportunity", held in Vilnius 25 November, Chancellor of the Government Alminas Mačiulis stressed that it was very important to speed up implementation of decisions to conclude negotiations on the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) between the EU and the USA as soon as possible. "The TTIP is among our top priorities in the field of external trade. It is a unique project that offers an opportunity to strengthen the EU and US economies by creating an ambitious and open free trade area", said the Chancellor.
